

Love Is Unconditional

John 3:16

"For God so loved the world that He gave His only Begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life.

Notice how much correlation there is between love and giving in this wonderful familiar passage carved in most of our hearts. We are made in the image of God who created us to love and give with unselfish motives.

Unconditional love comes from the heart and expects nothing in return. When you bless others the love of God will be seen through you with no strings attached. When God sent His Son Jesus to save us from our sins the only condition was for us to love Him and believe in Him.

One of my most, most favorite scriptures in the New Testament says,

"Love suffers long and is kind; love does not envy; love does not parade itself, is not puffed up; does not behave rudely, does not seek its own, is not provoked, thinks no evil; does not rejoice in iniquity, (sin) but rejoices in the truth: bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things." 1 Corinthians 13:4-7

It must break the Lord's heart every day to see the brokenness in millions of people's lives He sees. If ever there was a time to love others unconditionally it is right now!

There is an old famous hymn which says "His eye is on the sparrow and I know He watches me", so just imagine how much more He cares and values each and every soul who lives and breathes.

God's timing is not ours, but He needs us to be His hands, His feet, His mercy, His compassion. So keep on giving and keep on loving others unconditionally. Expect nothing in return. Pray for those who are broken, lost, abused, sick or alone to discover the unconditional loving arms of Jesus.

God Bless Your Day
Jesus Loves You
