

What Is God's Will For Me?

I have asked God this question so many times and if you're like me you have, too! You may have chosen a certain direction only to discover that it was the wrong decision. You may even be weary right now thinking you're all alone "in the desert" and you don't know what to do. Been there!

This may be surprising, but did you know that your will is connected to God's will? This is how you will know. Even before you took your very first breath God put His will inside you along with the special gifts He wants you to use not just for yourself, but for Him. His will is for you to read His word, the Bible, which has every single answer to every single question you may have. His word is the truth that sets you free! Free from worry. Free from stress. Free to finally know you don't have to depend on yourself, but to depend completely on His guidance and direction. Proverbs 5:3-6 says,

"Trust in the Lord with all your heart, with all mind, with all your strength. Lean not upon your own understanding, but in all your ways acknowledge Him and He will direct your path."

Wow! That takes a load off my shoulders. How about you?

The answers you seek my friend, can be found when you know who you are in Christ. But how can you find them if you don't know Him? Ah, but when you open your Bible you will find such amazing treasures that will open your eyes and heart to discover all of the benefits Jesus has provided for you. For instance, here is what Jeremiah 9:11 in the Old Testament assures us, "For I know the plans I have for you. Plans not to harm you, but to prosper you and to give you a future."

Isn't it wonderful to know that you have someone who can take the load off your shoulders and give you rest and peace? Someone who can take you out of worry and who will guide you to the right person, place or job and who will provide for you?

Don't just depend on yourself. Depend on the One who created you. There are some things you cannot do alone. Desire to know how God does things and why. Discover the perimeters that He has set which He wants you to follow and remain in. When you do, you will know His will for you, because you will sense that it is your will, too. My friend, Life is in Jesus who always followed His Father's good and perfect will. He never made serious decisions without asking God first for the answer. God's will is in YOU, too. I encourage you to open your Bible to the book of Psalms and read how King David searched and found God's perfect will for him. You will come to find that God's will has been there all along waiting for you to uncover in those wonderful, living pages.

God Bless your day
Jesus loves you
